

English as working language

41

Answers

special vocabulary, words - you get to know it, but forget it soon

It worked out great. I was able to communicate with everybody

anti

Different levels of english for different people and situations

Worked great

Should have looked up scientific vocabulary

I understood everything quite easily

good

good

English as working language

41

Answers

 Mentimeter

Understanding others was hard at times

nice

I had a great time communicating with others

My level is C1

I didn't have any difficulties in expressing my thoughts

I feel that my language skill is better than before

Guiding teens through Vienna in a native language is hard.

I was stunned of how good I could talk when I am confident

Interesting experience

English as working language

41

Answers

 Mentimeter

I can speak without stress, but I still have to improve my grammar and vocabulary. Also I have to speak English more to practice fluently speaking.

It was good opportunity to test my English skills

I understand the sentences but I don't talk about everything. Social: helpful, calm, trust the best option

It was easy, but I still learned some new vocabulary.

English is no problem although I sometimes struggle to speak in front of the big group.

Sometimes it was hard to switch from my mother language. However sometimes I surprised myself how I can handle different or difficult situations

Worked well

I think this was a good choice, but I am not sure if the Indians understood everything. In my opinion everybody improved their English knowledge and communication in every country.

English as working language

41

Answers

I understood almost every word so I liked it.

I learned a lot of new words.

I prefer it more than my native language

It was fun to speak a foreign language for a week.

It was not an obstacle, if something was not fully clear the others could explain it to me.

English is an important language

English has always been a reading or watching language but at Erasmus i actually used it for something. It has been really easy as my english is pretty good.

Luckily, the Englisch goes well for me because I have been learning Englisch about 11 years

I understood and was able to answer everyone, but I still need to improve biology in English

English as working language

41

Answers

Almost all participants in the project speak English very well, but the students were a little too small integrated.

I improve my English and German speaking. I started thinking in English. I found that English is international language and can make new friends around the world. I am more motivated to learn English and German too. The best team ever!! Great people!

Often searching for the right word

It is good to know, that people in other countries have similar thoughts, problems and preferences

Exchange of thoughts over generations in both directions

Indian group - working together despite of being 7000km away from each other

A lot of people formed groups with people from their own country, but there where some nice group bonding activities

Stayed in our groups for if we weren't separated

Help of students - almost without limitations

anti

there was a hierarchy

loughing, sitting together saying what you think - being yourself without necessity of hiding positive and negative emotions

good opportunity to become more open

It was a bit hard to open up to others

Conversations with other Students

The first memories with this is culture.

I am worst at being social, so it was quite hard for me and I mainly concentrated on working other than socialising

Spending time with each other in the city centre was amazing

Good. I got to interact with quiet and shy people and learned about their culture and life opportunities, new sides of other nations

Team work, relations, getting to know each other, spending time together.

made new friends

Dinner with the Austrian students was refreshing

Social 30 Answers

Social is trying to give everything for the group

It's fun to be with others.

My most favourite part was the city tour since the austrian students talked to us a lot and we had the chance to get to know each other more. The dinner was a great idea since the question and answer exercise helped with socializing as well.

Social is meeting new and interesting people

Working in groups, the dinner with candles.

I thankful for to knew other new people and i could work with them

Social is helping others

It has been great to get to know the students from Krakow and Miskolc!

Keeping good relationship with others can be hard but being lonely is harder.

Social interactions are harder than expected

Being togethet with others. Make new friendships and get known more about other culture and habbits

Participating in social activities or mixing socially with others was amazong experience.I find new frinds and partners in the future exchanges.